MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD:

25X1

SUBJECT:

1. Talked to Frances Christy, House Judiciary Committee staff, who told me that she had been contacted by representatives of CAB about the  case. She told them that it was unlikely that such legislation could be passed this session but that nothing is impossible. She noted that at a minimum such a bill would have to be completely supported by CIA. She suggested to them that it might be well if they could get the bill introduced and passed by the Senate and noted that there is a problem in the House Committee at this time on the introduction of private bills. She received a telephone call later indicating that they (CAB) had talked to Senator Eastland's office and the Senate Immigration and Naturalization Subcommittee staff and that the bill will be introduced by Senator Hiram Fong.

2. Miss Christy told me that she would keep me advised and thanked me again for alerting her before the calls were received.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Conversation with Drury Blair, on the Staff of the Senate Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization

25X1 1. I talked with Mr. Drury Blair today about the possibility of a private immigration bill for [redacted] memorandum of 17 November 1970 on this subject). Mr. Blair said nothing was impossible but added if there were problems on this kind of legislation in the House Subcommittee it would be fruitless for the Senate Subcommittee to try to do anything. He said he has some recollection that the kind of legislation we had in mind has, in fact, been enacted in the past, but he is not sure of this [redacted]). He said he would like to think about it and talk to Fred Mesmer, Staff Director of the Subcommittee, on his return from his current trip abroad.

25X1 2. I told Blair that I would get a further reading on the objections posed by J. Cline, Counsel of the House Immigration Subcommittee, and we could talk about this further. I mentioned to Blair contacts made by several Aeronautical Board personnel on this case with Courtney Pace, Administrative Assistant to Senator Eastland, and Robert Carson, Administrative Assistant to Senator Fong.
